PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dateline: 22nd October 2018

BOWLERS' CLOSE SEASON OFF TO A (F)LYING START!

The close Season social programme at Syston Bowling Club was launched on Saturday 20th October with a re-creation of the classic TV programme “Call My Bluff”. Picture shows the panel of “experts” - Norma Grimes, George Dodge, Colin Grimes (in the Chair), Fiona Henry and Brian King, each of whom tried to persuade the audience that their definitions of words such as ventripotent, xerography, yakow, ramiferous, lamboy and opisometer were to be believed. They had varying degrees of success while a great deal of laughter was created by some of the more outrageous definitions offered.

The next programme in the series is scheduled for Saturday 17th November and will take the form of a “Dog Racing Night” to be presented by Derek Renshaw. Donations of raffle prizes will be welcomed. These Winter events are not restricted to Club Members. Anyone wishing to attend should contact Colin Grimes (Tel: 0116 2608412), in advance, to reserve seats and a hot meal (chili con carne or curry in November). You are assured of a warm welcome. A £5 cover charge is payable on the night.
